

New school engagement sessions

North of Glasgow

Plans for a new non-denominational primary school in the north of Glasgow

- ▶ Glasgow City Council is looking for views and suggestions on plans for a new non-denominational primary school in the north of the city ahead of a formal consultation in November 2016
- ▶ Two public drop in sessions have been organised, where you will have an opportunity to speak to council officers who are gathering information ahead of final recommendations

Come along and take part in the discussions - your chance to shape the future non-denominational primary school provision in the north of the city.
