FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

WHO ARE WE?

The National Youth Choir of Scotland (NYCoS) is the organisation dedicated to encouraging singing for young people aged 0–25. From tiny tots learning in our Mini Music Makers classes, through to young adults giving critically acclaimed performances as part of the flagship National Choir, we help young singers reach their full potential.

WHO CAN APPLY FOR NYCoS NATIONAL BOYS CHOIR?

Boys aged 10–16 (17 depending on vocal maturity) born, resident or studying in Scotland. Boys aged 16/17 are also eligible to apply for NYCoS Training Choir. You can read more about this at nycos.co.uk.

Only one audition will be required if you apply for both choirs.

HOW DO I APPLY?

Apply online at nycos.co.uk. All applications will be acknowledged.

REPERTOIRE

The music for NYCoS National Boys Choir is in a wide variety of styles; in unison, two and three parts. Previous concerts have included music by Byrd, Vivaldi, Franck, Britten, Cunningham, Goodall and Scottish folksongs. Since 2006, NYCoS has commissioned three works by Tom Cunningham, specifically for the Boys Choir: The Saga of the Seven Days (2006), Seven Planets and a Cosmic Rock (2008) and Going for Gold (2012).

WHO ARE THE COURSE STAFF?

NYCoS National Boys Choir is directed by Christopher Bell. Ruth Townsend, Course Director, leads a team of qualified and experienced house staff. NYCoS has Child Protection Guidelines to ensure the wellbeing of choir members.
