“I would like to know more- how to help my son in his homework, but I don't know how” (Mother, Iraq)

Gathered Together are holding a series of workshops for parents who are new to Scotland and for people working with these parents. The workshops will help you to understand what happens in schools and how you can get more involved with your children's learning.

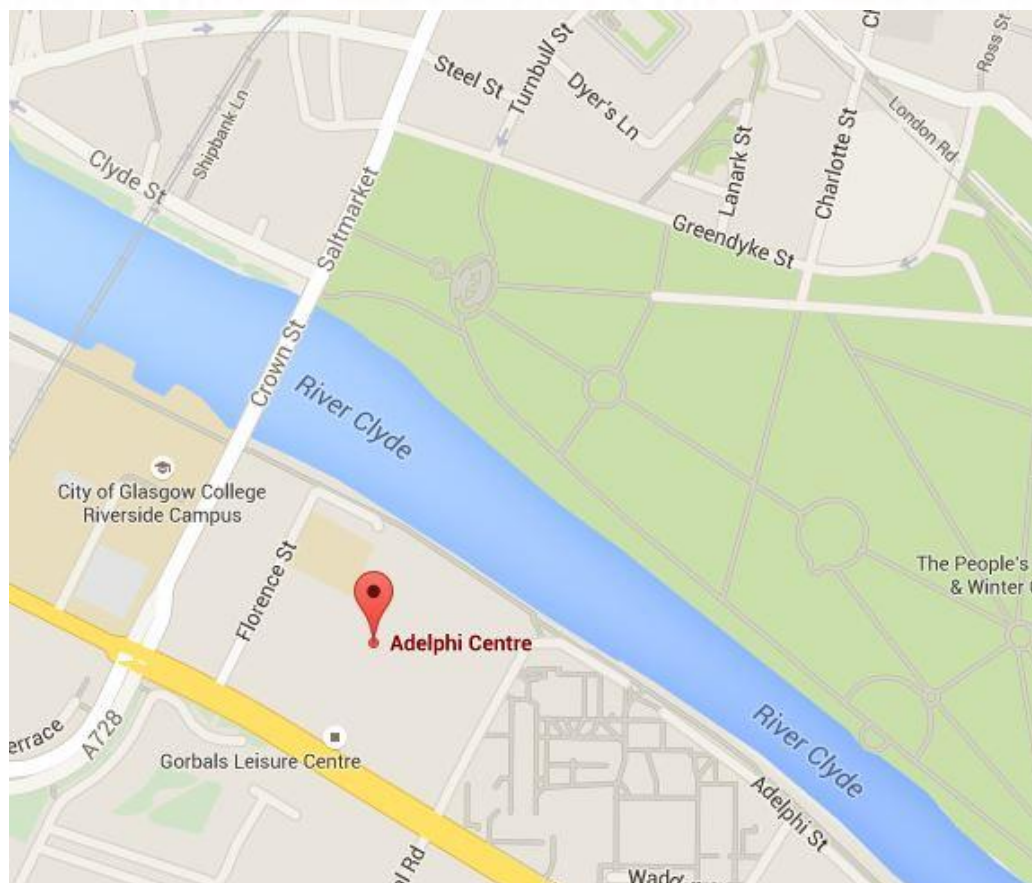

We will work with the experts (like Skills Development Scotland) to explain different stages of education, choices after school and give you a chance to ask questions.

Each session will be held from 10.30-12.30pm at the Adelphi Centre

Session Title	Date
Primary school information	30 September
Secondary school information	7 October
Post-16 education and choices	21 October
Parental involvement and engagement	28 October
Mother tongue at home and school	4 November
Children's rights in Scotland	11 November

To book a place email gtevents@bemis.org.uk or phone 0141 548 8047

Each session will be held at the Adelphi Centre, 12 Commercial Street, Gorbals, Glasgow, G5 0PQ
